T MOBIL et IN FUSIO offer games for mobile phone in wap technology

T MOBIL and IN FUSIO, world-wide leading company for mobile phones games, will offer a new game using WAP technology for the commercial launch forecasted in autumn 1999. "We belong to a leisure world. With 17 billion of USD turnover and a worldwide installed base of more than 50 million of consoles and 70 million of pocket consoles, facts show the hidden mass market needs for video games! Mobile phone has a lot of assets for bringing fun and pleasure to customers. Mobile phone will be the over the air interactive Walkman of video games consoles" notes Gilles RAYMOND, In Fusio Chief Executive Officer.

The fighting role playing game IN SPIRIT:

- In-Spirit is a fighting-role playing game, which offers players from all over the world the opportunity to fight each other, exchange email addresses and meet fighters on the In-Spirit web forum. In-Spirit is an unprecedented event. Fully using the communication capacity of a mobile phone, the whole fight is on over the air connection, and managed by the server.
